

- Pieces must be left to dry immediately after washing, in well-ventilated places, thus preventing damp patches.

- We must preen the pieces, smoothing creases and forming the cups before drying and hanging so as not to mark or wrinkle it.

- You should prevent direct exposure to sunlight, which can discolor the pieces.

- It's also not advisable to dry the drying machine, since the high temperatures may deform and damage the clothing piece.